IMPORTED JAPANESE IRIS.

We have one of the finest collections of Japanese Iris in the Northwest. They were imported by us direct from Yokohama, Japan. All are fine varieties with exceptionally large flowers.

The Japanese Iris succeeds best in a rich soil where there is plenty of water. Clumps should be divided every two years to insure a thrifty growth. Protect well with straw after the ground is frozen in the fall. For cut flowers the blossoms should be cut in the bud state and allowed to open after being placed in water.

We offer the following eight named varieties. Large clumps, $2.50 per dozen.

No. 1. Zama - No - Mori — White, very slightly shaded with foggy blue, yellow blotches, three petals.

No. 3. Kumo-No-Obi — Dark lavender purple, white halo surrounding yellow blotches, three petals.

No. 6. Shokko - Nishiki — Lilac on white, flaked and speckled, yellow blotches, three petals.

No. 8. Koki-No-Iro — Red purple, suffused with intense blue, orange blotches, six petals.

No. 20. Shirataki — Great fine white petals, primrose blotches, six petals.

No. 23. Sofu-No-Koi — White splashed, blotched and speckled sky blue, primrose blotches, six petals.

No. 24. Kuro-Kumo — Purple overlaid with dark blue, yellow blotches, six petals.

No. 25. Izumi-Gawa — Grey, yellow blotches, radiating dark blue veins, six petals.

LAKE MINNETONKA CUSTOMERS.

We are conveniently located near the north shore of Lake Minnetonka, half a mile south of Long Lake Station, on the road between Long Lake and Crystal Bay, and a few blocks north of the Long Lake Station, on the Luce Electric Line. We deliver free of charge to most points on the lake. Next time you pass this way come in and pick out your own stock. We are always glad to show you over the grounds at any time. We can arrange to take charge of any planting, if desired, at a very reasonable price.

We employ no agents. Customers will find our prices from 30 to 50 per cent lower than those quoted by any traveling agent. Order direct and save the agent's commission.

GUARANTEE.

We guarantee our stock to be true to name, in healthy condition when delivered, and fully up to grade and quality stated. Should any stock prove otherwise we will cheerfully refund the price paid or replace the same with stock as specified, if notified promptly. In no case are we liable for more than the original purchase price; stock is sold only on these terms.

The nursery is inspected annually by the State Entomologist. Copy of certificate accompanies each shipment.

Trees and plants are living things—treat them as such. Your success is our success. We aim to please all who do business with us.

TERMS.

Remittances should accompany all orders from unknown purchasers or satisfactory reference furnished. Prices quoted are f. o. b. Long Lake, and include cost of packing and boxing. Six of any variety sold at dozen rates, and 50 at 100 rates. On large orders we shall be pleased to quote special prices. If there is anything not listed that you want, ask for it.

NOTICE.

Special Offers.

On all orders received on or before April 15th we will include one dozen of our Giant Flowering Gladioli bulbs, free of charge.

Prices on European White Birch and on Carrie Gooseberries at 20 per cent off on orders received for same before April 15th. Get your order in now.

EVERGREENS.

Evergreens rank among the most prominent and most desirable plants for ornamental planting and landscape gardening. At the same time they require somewhat more care in transplanting than do other kinds of trees. Always move in the spring about the time the buds are beginning to swell. Never let the roots dry out even for one minute. One or two minutes in the sun and air may kill the tree. All our trees have been transplanted at least twice and are fine stocky specimens. Write for prices on larger sizes.

GLADIOLI BULBS.

If you have a little space in your garden or around the house, try a few of our Gladioli Bulbs this spring. Our bulbs produce the largest flowers grown anywhere. A visit to the nursery during the last half of July or any time in August will convince you. We select and grade our bulbs with the utmost care, and send out none but strong, healthy, strictly first size bulbs, guaranteed to bloom. Try our special collection just to get acquainted with the beauty of the modern Gladiolus.

We specialize in Gladioli Bulbs and have the newest and best varieties in stock. Our collection is one of the best in the Northwest.

CULTURAL DIRECTIONS.

There is nothing easier to grow than Gladioli. They will thrive well in any kind of soil, except possibly a heavy clay. Where there is a choice of location they should be planted in a light loam or a moist, sandy soil with full exposure to the sun.

The Gladiolus as a cut flower is unexcelled. We find that the finest and largest flowers are produced where the bulbs have plenty of moisture, but ample drainage is necessary to prevent the bulbs from rotting. Cutting the spike too close to the ground weakens the bulb.

In the fall the bulbs will be ready to take up a few weeks after blooming. Dig before severe frosts come. Dry the bulbs in the sun for a day or two, after which the stalks may be cut off close to the bulb. Store in boxes or in shallow baskets in a dry, cool place. The bulbs should be examined in the winter to see that they are not becoming too dry or absorbing too much moisture.

"I X L" Dollar Collection.

A grand collection of Gladioli selected to give a wide range of color. One extra select bulb of each for $1.00.

ROSES.

New Hardy Roses.

The New Hybrid Rugosa Roses can be grown throughout Minnesota without any winter protection, and without doubt are a great addition to our list of flowering shrubs. No garden should be without some of these new roses.

These Hybrid Rugosa Roses are strong, robust plants, with such a vigorous constitution that they are practically disease resistant. They produce a wealth of bloom from June to frost. Plan to try a few of these in your garden this spring. Remember, they are perfectly hardy.

Blanc de Courbert—Pure white, semi-double, large flowers produced in clusters. The earliest rose, and a very free bloomer.

Sir Thomas Lipton—Pure white and very fragrant. A little smaller than the Blanc de Courbert and not quite so free a bloomer. Perfectly double and more desirable as a cut flower.

Conrad P. Meyer—The very finest of all the Rugosa hybrids. Clear, silvery pink, of great size. Very fragrant. The flowers are produced singly instead of in clusters like the other Rugosa hybrids, making a blossom that is unequalled as a cut flower. Very double. Do not fail to get a few of this choice variety. This rose is the least hardy of any of the Rugosa hybrids and is benefited by winter protection, though this is not a necessity. At the same time this rose is much easier to grow than any of the hybrid perpetual class and is fully equal to the best of them in every respect.

New Century—Rosy pink, shading to red center. Very fragrant and perfectly double. Flowers of good size produced in clusters. Very free blooming.

Hansa—Dark red, very large and perfectly double. It is very fragrant and unlike others of its class the buds in each cluster open at the same time, giving a very pleasing effect at a distance. The foliage is a particularly rich, dark green. One of the best for general planting.

Hybrid Perpetuals.

These are the hardiest and most satisfactory roses to be had with the exception of the new Rugosa hybrids. These roses need a good covering of soil in the winter.

Frau Karl Druschki—The very best pure white. A vigorous grower and bloomer.

Gen. Jacqueminot—Dark red, double and very fragrant. The most popular red rose of its class.

Paul Neyron—Pink, very double and fragrant. The largest rose in cultivation. Very desirable.

Prince Camille—Very dark crimson, passing to intense maroon, shaded black. Large flowers. One of the very best dark roses.

Climbing Roses.

Flower of Fairchild—The ever-blooming Crimson Rambler. Blooms throughout the summer. 2 year, each 50c; $5.00 per dozen.

Blue Rambler—A wonderful new violet blue rose. Similar in growth to the Crimson Rambler. 2 year, each 50c; $5.00 per dozen.

Crimson Rambler—A great favorite. A very profuse bloomer, but not quite so hardy as the following climbers. 2 year, each 35c; $3.50 per dozen.

Baby Rambler—A dwarf form that blossoms throughout the summer. Needs but little winter protection. 2 year, each 50c; $3.50 per dozen.

Dorothy Perkins—Probably the most satisfactory climbing rose for Minnesota. Shell pink. Very vigorous. 2 year, each 35c; $3.50 per dozen.

Queen of the Prairie—A very popular bright red climber. 2 year, each 35c; $3.50 per dozen.

LILY BULBS.

Tiger Lily (Variety Splendens)—By far the best form of Tiger Lily. Taller, stronger and more vigorous than the common Tiger Lily, with larger flowers. 15c each; $1.50 per dozen.

We shall be glad to quote you on any other variety of Lilies you may want at the lowest market price.

DAHLIAS.

The Dahlia is one of the most brilliant of all flowering plants, producing a great variety of different colors from July to frost. Plant in the spring as soon as all danger from frost is over, and train to one stalk in order to get the finest flowers.

From a great number of varieties we have selected a few of the very best. These are the finest varieties of their class, with long stems and free blooming habits. Prices except where noted: 20c each; $2.00 per dozen.

Show Dahlias.

Show Dahlias are usually of solid color with round ball-shaped flowers. Very compact and desirable for cut flowers.

A. D. Livoni—Beautiful soft pink flowers with quilled petals. An early and profuse bloomer.

Arabella—Sulphur yellow, overlaid with lavender. A fine flower.

Storm King—The best of all white show Dahlias. Very vigorous. An early bloomer.

Princess Victoria—A fine canary yellow of medium size. Very early.

Dorothy Peacock—The finest shell pink Dahlia of its class. Very early and a free bloomer.

A new variety. 50c each; $5.00 per dozen.

Decorative Dahlias.

This class is known by the large flowers and flat petals. An intermediate type between the Cactus and the Show Dahlias. These are excellent for cut flowers on account of their substance and shipping qualities. A very popular type.

Black Beauty—Dark crimson. Very large.

Golden Wedding—A new golden yellow Dahlia. Very large and attractive.

C. W. Bruton—A very early and large flowering yellow Dahlia. Bright golden yellow.

Jack Rose—Rich crimson red. Large flowers with long stems. A popular variety.

Miss Minnie McCullough—An extra choice variety for cut flowers. Soft yellow overlaid with bronze. Long, strong stems.

Sylvia—Light shell pink. Large flowers on long, strong stems. A favorite for cut flowers.

Cactus Type.

A very pretty form of the Dahlia with long twisted petals. A very desirable type.

Countess of Lonsdale—Apricot yellow shading toward the edge with carmine pink. Early; one of the best.

Kriemhilde—A very pretty pink, shading to white in the center. One of the best for cut flowers. Long stems.

New Century Single.

Very beautiful single Dahlias. Extra large flowers on long stems. A very pretty and distinct type.

White Century—Immense snow white flowers on long graceful stems. A very early and profuse bloomer. 25c each; $2.50 per dozen.

Fringed 20th Century—Rosy crimson shading to light pink at the tips. A very effective variety. 25c each; $2.50 per dozen.

Peony Flowered.

Geisha—A very showy variety. Scarlet and gold. 50c each.

Queen Wilhelmina—A very pretty white. 25c each.

IRIS.

German Iris.

Bonquet Royal—Cream color, very handsome. 15c each; $1.50 per dozen.

Gold Crest—Yellow, veined red. 15c each; $1.50 per dozen.

Madam Chereau—White edged with violet, tall growing. 15c each; $1.50 per dozen.

Pallida Dalmatica—Pure lavender. Tall. A free bloomer. 25c each; $2.50 per dozen.

Her Majesty—Beautiful rose pink, a rare shade that attracts attention. 25c each; $2.50 per dozen.

Purple Prince—Deep violet blue. 15c each; $1.50 per dozen.

Mixed—A choice mixture of named varieties. 10c each; $1.00 per dozen.

Siberian Iris.

Orientalis—Intense blue; blooms ten days later than the German Iris. 15c each; $1.50 per dozen.

HARDY PERENNIALS.

We carry an excellent stock of these hardy flowering plants. By judicious planting blossoms may be had from early spring until frost. Nearly all varieties produce choice cut flowers. Most sorts will be benefited by a mulch as soon as the ground is frozen in the fall.

Let us know what you need in this line. Strong field grown plants, all of blossoming size. Prices except where noted:
